

2007/08 LSTA – Early Learning with Families (ELF) Initiative

This program positions public libraries as resources for strengthening the capacity of families to nurture their children's early development by expanding the breadth and dept of Children's services through child development and family dynamics research, as well as partnerships with adult literacy services. This program currently involves 54 actively participating libraries, and an information network and website that provides related training, resource materials, and information sharing among all libraries interested in ELF.
